PHILIP DENNIS FOODSERVICE

Town & Country Insurance Services are delighted to announce a major new contract with Philip Dennis Foodservice.

Philip Dennis Foodservice supply ambient, chilled, frozen and non-food goods to the catering trade - alongside their own butchery and fishmonger services - resulting in a £40m turnover. With their head office and South West depot based in Ilfracombe, they have additional offices in Barnstaple and two further depots in Oxfordshire and the Midlands. Their wide-ranging customer base is supplied to by a fleet of over 100 vehicles.

Philip Dennis Foodservice have appointed Town & Country Insurance, a locally owned independent insurance broker specialising in arranging business insurance for commercial clients, as their 2016 broker. This latest win continues the amazing growth

Town & Country has seen in recent years and will undoubtedly result in additional employment at their newly expanded offices in South Molton.

“Town & Country tendered against a major national broker to win the account and were awarded the contract both on price and ability to service. This continued growth shows that Town & Country’s location is no bar on being able to win the very best business, both locally and nationally,” said Managing Director Richard Bushnell; “I am extremely proud of everyone here and would like to thank Philip Dennis Foodservice for placing their trust in us. We look forward to working closely with them”.

Other recent wins for Town & Country Insurance Services include...

Major national hotel chains, many operating Hilton or Accor brands and based at some of the UK’s largest airports or inner city locations.

Both local, and national food-stuff processors with multi-million pound turnovers.

Sizable builders, contractors and property developers, many local to us but others based or having projects throughout the UK, including large city centre projects.

The very best local Tourist Attractions and some sizable educational and care home facilities, each employing hundreds of staff.

Town & Country have a national reputation as being the “go to” broker for specialist risks such as skateparks and climbing walls.

Town & Country also cover a wide variety of other risks from Quarries to Motor Traders and Agricultural Engineers to Farms; no risk is too large or too small.

How Town & Country can help you...

With over 80 years of trading, North Devon’s Town & Country Insurance prides itself on an ethos of first class service with competitive pricing from a wide range of products. Growing steadily, the business is now supported by more than 20 qualified staff, all employed locally.

Town & Country are pleased to be able to offer a one-stop-shop for all insurance solutions and in 2015 opened a sister company to offer clients access to all aspects of financial services, to include Auto Enrolment Pensions, Protection, Mortgages, Asset Finance and Investments.

With all of this said, Town & Country have never forgotten their core roots and still insure many smaller local businesses, giving them the same level of attention to detail as the largest of international clients.

These businesses trust Town & Country to ensure they have the right insurance cover at the best premiums and Town & Country are extremely grateful for the support of each and every business and individual that chooses Town & Country Insurance Services.
